Rosemarie S Kingsbury CPS/CAP is a Senior Administrative Professional at one of Rhode Islands largest independent the accounting firms, Sansiveri, Kimball & McNamee, LLP (SKM). SKM is an award winning and full service accounting, business and financial consulting, and wealth management firm dedicated to being a leader in the industry. SKM serves a diverse range of clients in Southern New England and several foreign countries from its offices in Providence, Newport and Westerly, RI. Rosemarie supports the Westerly office and will celebrate 20 years with SKM this October.

Rosemarie and her husband, Lance, are the owners of Kingsbury'd Treasures, a virtual store that deals internationally in vintage and antique collector's plates, figurines, ornaments, and dinnerware. Kingsbury'd Treasures is an active supporter of the GNED.

A charter member of the SE CT Shoreline Chapter, Rosemarie just finished serving a two-year term as Chapter President. She is Treasurer for the 2010 EFAM Host Committee.

Rosemarie began her professional career in the U.S. Army as one of the last women to join the Women's Armed Corps (WAC) as it was disbanded just ten weeks after she joined. She served at Ft Eustis in Virginia before being transferred to the 2nd Armored Div (Fwd) in Garlstadt Germany where she was part of the Headquarters staff. Rosemarie participated in two NATO reforcers as well as being field activated during the Iranian Hostage Crisis. She was an expert with the M-16 rifle and was honorably discharged with a Good Conduct Medal.
