DEREK ANTONE, CPA/MBA

Tax Manager

Derek joined Sansiveri in 2023 and brings nearly 10 years of experience as an accounting professional to his role as manager in the tax department. In his role, Derek functions as a well-rounded generalist with extensive knowledge of various entity types and industries. He specializes in partnership and C corporation tax returns, particularly within the real estate, manufacturing, and hospitality sectors. His responsibilities also include administrative duties such as scheduling and staff utilization. Recognized for his hardworking and honest nature, Derek's personal service philosophy centers on the importance of adding value to clients. He believes that continuous improvement and balancing listening with speaking are crucial to success.

Derek resides in Scituate with his wife, Nesrene, their two children, Samira and Easton, two dogs, two cats, and seven chickens! His hobbies include working out, golfing, engaging in outdoor activities, and spending time with his family. Derek's favorite sports team is the New England Patriots, and his favorite travel destination is Costa Rica, where he honeymooned and had an amazing experience.
