MATTHEW PARRILLO

Tax Supervisor

Matthew (Matt) Parrillo is a Tax Supervisor at Sansiveri, Kimball & Co., LLP. He joined the firm in 2023 and has been working in the accounting field since 2018. Specializing in estate, trust, and high-net-worth individual taxation, Matt provides comprehensive tax compliance and planning services to help clients navigate complex financial matters.

He earned his Bachelor of Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from Bryant University in 2018. His expertise spans individual and entity-level tax compliance, trust taxation, and estate tax planning, allowing him to develop strategic tax solutions tailored to each client's needs.

Originally from North Scituate, RI, Matt now lives in Cranston. When he's not working, he enjoys hiking and running—especially when he gets the chance to visit his favorite destination, Jackson Hole, Wyoming.
