CASSIDY CHAPMAN

Assurance Supervisor

Cassidy Chapman is an Assurance Supervisor at Sansiveri, delivering assurance services and strategic business support to a wide variety of clients. She began her career at the firm in 2019 as a Staff Accountant and steadily advanced to Senior Accountant before being promoted to her current role. Known for her diligence and attention to detail, Cassidy works closely with clients in the manufacturing, construction, not-for-profit, and employee benefit plan sectors, helping them navigate financial reporting and compliance with confidence.

Beyond her client work, Cassidy plays an integral role in fostering team development and firm culture. She currently serves as Chairperson of Sansiveri's Events Committee, where she leads firmwide initiatives and employee engagement efforts. She also mentors emerging professionals through PACE and Sansiveri's CPA Kickstart Program and is actively involved in onboarding and training new staff members in the assurance department.

Cassidy is a member of the Rhode Island Society of Certified Public Accountants and serves as Treasurer of the Rhode Island Rugby Football Foundation, Inc., blending her professional expertise with a love of athletics and community involvement.

From Douglas, Massachusetts, with her two dogs, Murphy and Nana. Outside the office, she enjoys playing rugby, reading, watching Bruins hockey, spending time with family, and relaxing at the beach.
