

DAVID HILL, CPA/MST

Partner

David Hill, CPA, MST, is a Principal in the Tax Department at Sansiveri, Kimball & Co. Licensed as a CPA in Rhode Island, David joined the firm in 2023 and has been serving businesses and individuals throughout the Rhode Island market for more than 10 years. He specializes in real estate, construction, manufacturing and distribution, high-net-worth individuals, trusts and estates, and partnership taxation. Recognized for his leadership within the profession and commitment to the Rhode Island business community, David was named a Providence Business News 40 Under Forty honoree in 2026.

David's responsibilities at Sansiveri, aside from client service, include developing annual CPE programs for the tax team, conducting internal trainings, and mentoring staff. He specializes in real estate, construction, manufacturing & distribution, high net-worth individuals, trusts and estates, and partnership taxation. David is known for his expertise in working with small to medium-sized businesses and their owners to mitigate and defer tax liabilities. David also enjoys staying active in the business community, cultivating relationships with new clients and referral sources assisting with the growth of the firm through continuous business development.

David is a native Rhode Islander, raised in East Providence and currently resides in Preston, CT with his wife Jill and their dogs, Ranger and Athena. In his free time, he is an avid New England sports fan and enjoys playing hockey, golf, snowboarding, and being active outdoors.

Education:

- Salve Regina University – Bachelors in Accounting
- Northeastern University – Masters in Taxation

Core Services:

- Tax Consulting & Compliance
- Individual & Entity-level Tax Planning
- Estate Tax Planning

Specialties:

- High Net Worth Individual
- Real Estate
- Manufacturing & Distribution
- Construction
- Partnership Taxation

Affiliations:

- AICPA
- RISCPA
- Camp Ruggles Board of Directors
- Beta Gamma Sigma International Honor Society