

MARK MURPHY

Tax Manager

Mark Murphy is a Tax Manager at Sansiveri, Kimball & Co., LLP. Since joining the firm in 2023, he has been instrumental in keeping clients compliant with federal and state tax regulations while helping manage the tax department's daily operations. He provides leadership and guidance to tax associates, ensuring accurate and timely filings while offering strategic tax planning advice to clients.

Beyond client work, Mark is deeply involved in the firm's internal initiatives. He plays a key role in developing and implementing the internship program, mentoring staff, and contributing to firm-wide projects. His commitment to fostering growth and efficiency makes him a valuable member of the Sansiveri team.

Mark launched his public accounting career in 2020 after earning a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Rhode Island College in 2018. Originally from Utica, NY, he has lived in Rhode Island for over a decade and now resides in Warwick with his wife and daughter. When he's not at work, you'll likely find him running, going to music festivals or concerts, and cheering on the Buffalo Bills.

Education:

- Rhode Island College – Bachelor of Science in Accounting, 2018

Core Services:

- Tax Compliance
- Individual & Entity-Level Tax Planning

Specialties:

- High Net Worth Individuals
- Professional Services
- Real Estate